CORFU CONFIDENTIALS: The Town Guide

Synopsis

This second book in the Corfu Confidentials series, is for those of you who want to discover the character of Corfu Town, not just pass through it with nothing more to show than a beach towel with a map on it. Corfu is beautiful, its town is full of fascinating history and cultural influences which deserve to be explored to the full. So if, like me, you like to discover the heart of a place, then this book is for you. There are plenty of resources out there with various pieces of information about this captivating capital but in this book, unlike most guidebooks that try to cover every aspect of a destination, you have dedicated information, in easy to access segments, full colour pictures and a link to the GoogleMap designed to accompany it. So if you want an up to date guidebook, with local knowledge, to help you get the most out of your time in Corfu Town this is the guide.

Customer Reviews

I bought my Hubby the 'Corfu Confidential's Town Guide' this Christmas and asked him to take a pen and highlight all the places we should visit while we're there this summer. We haven't been back to Europe for a bunch of years and were feeling it was time to experience something historic and cultural and Corfu fit the bill. There wasn't a page in this book that escaped his highlight pen, who knew there was this much history and culture on such a little island. I recommend this book to anyone wanting to discover the town of KÃƒÂ©rkyra - that's what they call it there.
