Customer Reviews

Book 2 of the Cirenthian Chronicles picks up where book 1 ended and the action flows non stop. I enjoyed as the reader we get to understand what the main character was trying to do. The supporting cast continues to grow, so that's good. Again, the story is solid but I wish there was just a little more detail. Looking forward to book 3.

What a rush having to unseat a king and fight a new enemy coming into the kingdom and getting more mates. It will be interesting to see what's in book 3 being this seems to end this series. I'm looking forward to it for sure.
