Holy Land Travels: Highlights Of Israel And Jordan

Synopsis

"Holy Land Travels: Highlights of Israel and Jordan" is an eBook relating my trip to the Holy Land, in March 2008, where we saw noteworthy biblical sites. In addition to Israel, we also visited Jordan. It contains photos my husband took of Holy Land sites and ends with helpful tips for visiting the Holy Land. After my trip to the Holy Land, the Holy Scriptures became more alive and took on more meaning, as I had actually walked in the footsteps of Jesus, as well as visited sites, linked with other well-known biblical characters. This eBook is considered to be a long article, containing roughly 7,000 words.

Customer Reviews

Really gave us a sense of what she saw and what she liked on her trip. I wished it were longer and a little more in detail, but all in all, for a short travelogue, it was helpful.

Mrs Kichura gave a brief overview of sites visited, but on numerous occasions got her facts incorrect. A knowledgeable proofreader would have been helpful. However, the journey I traveled vicariously with her was enjoyable! G.Y. Alabama

The book is a short description of tour - the author had lots of fair going to Holy land. Info was not usful for planning the tour or to know better the country.
