The Natural Face-Lift: A Facial Touch Program For Rejuvenating Your Body And Spirit

Synopsis

Presented here are instructions for self-care routines and beauty rituals that use only gentle, natural products as alternatives to Botox and harsh chemical cosmetics. The author, a naturopathic physician, teaches ways to restore a youthful appearance to the face and release wrinkles while relaxing and restoring the entire body. Aided by color photos, she describes how to touch and gently massage specific facial areas in ways that replenish the skin while also nurturing the body and revitalizing the spirit. Combined with daily recommended cleansing and moisturizing routines, the author discusses the use of soaks and masks. Special routines are recommended for specific problems such as aging skin. Emphasis is on pure, natural ingredients for both external and internal use. Here is the key to a natural face-lift for beauty and general well-being. Approximately 300 photos.

Not that I'm a tai chi expertÃ¢Â¢Â¢ but I know tai chi is about managing and organizing your own energy, and this book is about managing and organizing the energy of your face. It's different than any of the other face-yoga or face-exercise books I've looked at recently in that there is no force placed on or required by the facial muscles. Instead, the author emphasizes the importance of being present whenever you wash your face or do her special "sweeps" and other very light massage techniques across various planes of the face. I've looked at quite a few books on how to exercise your face & this is probably my favorite. It's a little diffuse seemingÃ¢Â¢Â¢ not intuitively organizedÃ¢Â¢Â¢ but it has lots of clear photos & the main idea is as unusual as it is effective: that you can lift and energize the muscles (and skin) of your face by simply doing these very gentle touch and awareness exercises. For me, this approach is the perfect compliment to some more mechanical (resistance) type exercises for the face.

Great advice

This is a lovely book with beautiful photographs on nearly every page. Just looking at the photos is very relaxing in itself. It incorporates the physical and spiritual aspects to rejuvenation. The physical exercises are easy to do and the spiritual commentary helps to relax your mind. Very highly recommended!
