Customer Reviews

I've read the rave reviews of Lonely Planet guides and decided this trip I'd take the dive. Personally, I found them disappointing. The recommendations for food and sights were generally uninspired and no better than I could get from a casual web search. There were no interesting 'walking tours' provided. On the plus side, they were well written and current. If you're looking for something that will save you time in pulling out your phone and searching, this might work for you. I ended up leaving all the guides in Europe in our rooms because I had no expectations of passing them along to friends.

I love this guide of Barcelona 2017 from Lonely Planet Discover. The book is easy to read, to cross reference and finally to plan out our days for Barcelona! I love all of Lonely Planets guides!
