Stanley Newman is crossword editor for the Long Island, New York, newspaper Newsday, and is syndicated worldwide to more than 200 daily, Sunday, and Internet newspapers. As a puzzle creator, his work has appeared regularly in Prevention, People, Sport, and Businessweek magazines. Newman is the author or editor of over 200 books and has organized and conducted many puzzle and trivia events throughout the United States, includingÂ six seminars at the Smithsonian Institution in Washington, DC, and, in 2007, the first crossword tournament ever held at Yale University. He lives in New York with his wife and has three grown children.

Brand new, one of my favorites, so sad I'm almost done with both of Newman's newly published books (one upstairs, one down).

Stanley Newman is my new hero, and I'm going through his puzzle books like water. Very unique and fun ...never boring.

I love these- still challenging but not impossible! Really like that they are easy to handle with the spiral binding.

Nice selection of puzzles
