Customer Reviews

Before she started writing funny stories for children, Michelle Robinson wrote copy and devised websites for some of the world's biggest brands. She always dreamed of becoming an author like her hero, Roald Dahl. She shares his birthday and his love of chocolate, but she is much, much shorter. Michelle lives in Bristol with her husband and young son.

Grandson loves this book and he has me read it over and over. He is only 2.5 but can read it back to me from memorization. Very nicely illustrated and reads like Goodnight Moon. A great read for any little farm kid.

My toddler LOVES this book! This is the first and only book she will actually let us read to her without rushing through. The illustrations are beautiful and the rhymes are super cute!

My son absolutely loves this bedtime book. He can interact by finding the things in the story and the soft ending is great for sleepy time.
