Java (Footprint Focus)

Synopsis

Hike along one of Asia's most stunning volcano chains before spending a relaxing evening at one of the nearby hill resorts. Visit one of the world's great Buddhist monuments, the Borobudur, and prepared to be overwhelmed by the size of this giant pyramid-like shrine adorned with over 500 Buddha statues. From the crowded, bustling streets of Jakarta to the art deco architecture of Bandung, Footprintfocus Java will help you make the most out of your trip. Includes a Background section with fascinating insights into the history and culture of Java. Essentials section with practical advice on getting there and around. Comprehensive listings including where to eat & sleep, and have fun. Detailed street maps for Jakarta and other important towns and cities. Slim enough to fit in your pocket. Loaded with advice and information, this concise Footprintfocus guide will help you get the most out of Java without weighing you down. The content of Footprintfocus Java guide has been extracted from Footprint's Southeast Asia Handbook.

Paul Dixon has travelled extensively in Southeast Asia, Eastern Europe, North Africa and the Indian subcontinent. He has spent the last nine years living and working in Indonesia, Singapore, Saudi Arabia and China as an English teacher. When not preparing his students for exams, Paul writes travel articles for several foreign magazines and travel websites, as well as helping to research and write guidebooks for Footprint.

A book on Java this is certainly not. Footprint is a great editing house. Their books are normally filled with very detailed information about destinations, that will truly take you off the beaten path. Alas, this is not it. This is a hack job, taking chapters on Jakarta-Bandung-Yogyakarta/Solo/Borobudur and calling it a book on Java. The entire Central Javan coast disappears, and East Java is completely and utterly ignored (including Indonesia's second largest city, Surabaya). The chapters on each city are unfortunately quite shallow as well. Too bad, because Footprint's Indonesia is one of the best guides around. Wait for that one, to be published sometime in late 2012.

Not enough detailed information to provide the independent traveler with the necessary information to actually create and implement a self guided trip/tour to this country. Perhaps their full edition offers additional information, but this "slim" version is not worth the money.
