Customer Reviews

If this is your first, second, or third TL/Shojo manga you need to read a few more well written ones before jumping on this ride. This author takes blatant advantage of the fact that this is a Shoujo thus giving us all the tropes without doing the proper character building. Did I regret buying it? Nope. It was a fun ride that needed to be longer but was not steeped in unnecessary drama for the sake of moving the plot which I commend. But two more volumes would have perhaps made it evolve to more than porn without point. The epilogue was definitely rushed. It's like their editor sat them down and told them to make this story happen in 50 pages or less. Oddly, I have no complaints about the translations....censoring is another matter. The censoring in the last two volumes is so heavy in a few places the panel (thus the artwork) is ruined and rather clumsily done. So if you want a hard hitting story pass. If you want something light and quick, go for it!

I loved the way it is written. The style of the illustrations. I would definitely tell people to read this
