Customer Reviews

NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC KIDS inspires young adventurers to explore the world through award-winning magazines, books, website, apps, games, toys, television series and events and is the only kids brand with a world-class scientific organization at its core.

I bought this as a gift for a little boy. I am not sure how it was received for sure but these type of colorful "fun fact" books have especially seemed to be a hit with young boys, somewhere in the range of 6-12.

Purchased this great book for my always curious 10 year old grandson. He is reading it often and voraciously-great buy!

My 10 yr old likes this book that I bought him as a gift for Christmas.

My kids love this book. We also gift this book to friends. It's awesome

My almost 11 yr old son loves these books. He's always excited when a new one is published.

My nieces love stuff like this. It was a hit.

My 10 year olds review," I think it's a very good book, because every morning, I look forward to reading about a new fact." My daughter takes this new information, and further creates posters to elaborate on the information presented in the book which she shares with her classmates and family members.

This was a gift and we both love it! Beautiful and very informative.
