People misunderstood what is Wicca some of them told me that it is something to do with witchcraft but not all the time. In ancient time, paracetamol and other medicine do not exist they are using herbal leaves in order for them to be cured. This book will tell us about more the history of Wicca and herbalism and how these changes through time. I thought Bay Laurel is used in cooking or for aroma but I just found out that it was used as a herbal medicine before.

This essential beginners guide book has been written about the most popular topic wicca, wiccan herbal and essential oils magic spells. You will learn form this book about the gathering process of herbs and its storing process and furthermore. You will discover the history of essential oils. marvelous edition by an eloquent author.

I enjoyed every detail of Wiccan religion. This book is jam packed with so much information about wiccans, their beliefs, how to become one. This book offer an incredible amount of information. The book definitely inspired me and got me off on the right foot. I plan to continue to learn more.

The book covers the medicinal uses of some herbs and essential oils in conjunction with wicca tradition and practices. This book gave me clarity on the uses of herbs and essential oils for wicca practices and my misconceptions of wicca was corrected. It was a good read.

It was very informative, and well organized. I really enjoyed how well the author went over the basics, it makes for a good reference book. It was both informative and enjoyable; written in a manner that everyone could easily follow and understand. I have enjoyed reading this box set and hope that you will as well.

So much info but missing the colors and symbols of the element... I noticed in every different book they are different symbols... the correct symbols would be nice...

As someone new to Wicca, the information on oils in this book was pretty helpful. Not too much, but enough that you feel like you learned something.
