Very helpful book. It is very well written book and explains from setting up a business to keeping a track of money coming and going. It has good information to understand the accounting for a small business. I'd recommend it to anyone looking to start a business.

There is an ultimate guide book which has been written about accounting for small business including multiple benefit giving ways. This outstanding book will teach you step by step the definitions of accounting terms with accounting principles. So therefore, your understanding will be well cleared if you learn tips and tricks of it.

As an Accounting for Small Business myself, this book offers some great tips. It was very helpful to me because I was able to learn some new info along the lines of payroll, should I outsource some work. This book definitely helped me to better understand how everything comes together in the accounting world in order to help me make better financial decisions in the near future.
