A Trip To The Moon Coloring Book

Synopsis

This coloring book for adults contains original illustrations based on the 1902 silent film A Trip to the Moon by the legendary George Méliès. The twenty-three designs are of various difficulty levels and the images are printed on the fronts of pages only, so you don't need to worry about bleed-through if you choose to use markers. Designs range in complexity and detail from beginner to expert-level. Foreword by Adam Savage of the TV show MythBusters. Illustrated by Amy Hagemire, Vee Ladwa, Ernest Pablo Jr., and Satine Phoenix.

Customer Reviews

We love this book, very well done. The illustrations are striking. I backed this on Kickstarter and was pleasantly surprised when it arrived. My teenage daughter spends hours coloring these pages -- a loving homage to the iconic silent movie science-fiction classic. Highly recommend!

This coloring book is beautifully made and has a great theme. Fans of classic cinema and science fiction will really appreciate this take on the film of the same name. The illustrations capture the spirit of the film and all the iconic favorites are here, including the famous "man in the moon" face on the cover. One design choice I really like is that the blank pages (the backs of the illustrations) are black instead of the usual white. It feels appropriate for something based on a silent film.

This is a great collection from a bunch of my favorite artists and really fun to color! I highly recommend this book!

Best coloring book ever ! Amazing art ! This book is a great gift for all ages.
