This is an amazing Siddur. It instructs exactly what women are to daven and offers opportunities to say personal prayers in certain places during the amidah. It includes all of the services in case you are davening with the minyan. The used one I received looked brand new once I wiped the scuff marks off of the cover with a washrag. Not bad for $5. I use it everyday and would highly recommend it.

I received my Siddur on time. The book is beautiful. It includes the prayers in Hebrew on one side, and the same prayers in English on the other side. It also includes a little commentary in most pages relating to the prayers and tradition.

Mom's shtarking up, and this is the perfect siddur for her: User friendly, comprehensive, lots of notes. And the larger size is perfect for eager, searching, yet sometimes tired eyes. Maazal tov!

Love it. It makes me have to read the Hebrew symbols since it isn't translated in its language. Which is fun and gets me use to reading Hebrew.

Great sideburns!

Very nice book
