Lincoln Cent 1909-1958 Collector's Folder (Warman's Collector Coin Folders)

Synopsis

To do its part in the war effort, the U.S. Mint changed from a copper cent to a zinc-coated steel version for one year, in 1943. Rumor quickly spread that anyone who found a 1943 copper cent would be rewarded with a car from Ford. Now you can display your collection of the legendary Lincoln cents of 1909 to 1958 in this beautiful four-panel coin folder. Larger in size than the average folder, this unit has room for 144 coins, the most of any similar folder.

Customer Reviews

Not sure if i am missing something here. Inside (page 1) it starts with the year 1909 VDB - 1920S, the next "page" starts at 1921-1935. Third "page" starts 1947D- 1958D & the fourth page is the same exact as year spread as page three. I am missing 10 yrs of inserts (1936 - 1946). Is everyone see the same thing I am with this product?

1909-1958 official Whitmans Lincoln cents collection folder. I was skeptical at first on purchasing any Whitmans folder as several previous reviews were stating it was difficult to insert the coins. However, after receiving I had tried inserting several cents into the folder and they went in pretty easily. If you put one side of the coin down into the insertion and then push slightly on the opposite side it should go in with ease. With the folder being hard covered it should last a long time.

I love Warman's coin folders. The hard plastic ensures a quality that the book will last over time. The pockets for these books are much easier to fit into compared to Whitman's in my opinion. The book also arrived faster than expected and I already have about 1/4 of the book filled. Strongly recommend all Warman's folders. Lincoln Cent 1909-1958 Collector's Folder (Warman's Collector Coin Folders)

The book looks and feels high quality. Coins go in easily but are held firmly in place. I would buy again

This product is great. It had all of my expectations for a coin holder. The holes hold the coin perfectly. I don't like the "cheap manufacturing", but it does what I need it to do, so I'm overall happy. I will definitely be buying products from this company again!

Exactly as listed. Arrived quickly.

Very nice folder, holds all your wheat pennies + some. Convenient, nice, easy to place pennies on slots without having to jam them.

Great product for the money
