GEORGE RODRIGUE was born in New Iberia, in the heart of French Louisiana. For twenty-five years the artist painted scenes of Cajun life and culture, and many of those acclaimed works are now on display at the George Rodrigue Museum, Acadian Village, in Lafayette, Louisiana. The "Blue Dog" series, started in the mid-1980s, catapulted George Rodrigue to worldwide fame as the image of the original Cajun werewolf dog - loup-garou - has transformed into an international pop icon. Rodrigue owns and operates two galleries, in New Orleans and Carmel, California.

I am a fan of the Blue Dog and bought this book to bring out every year at Christmas. It is full of great art, and a nice story. Perfect for the family or a gift for others. It comes with a Christmas tree decoration of the Blue Dog that adds to the feel of the holiday spirit of the book. Fans of the Blue Dog will love this, and maybe some new people thanks to this book can become fans at Christmas time. Excellent book.

Great

I always thought the Blue Dog paintings by George Rodrigue were kind of goofy, but I liked them very much. Once I learned the story behind them, I liked them even more. We had brunch at the Blue Dog Café in Lafayette, LA the morning following Mr. Rodrigue's passing, having made our reservations there well beforehand. It was a very satisfying experience, celebrating his life. This is a good book - good thoughts and good pictures and a good legacy.

George Rodrigue is one of my favorite authors and artist. I have been a fan of Blue Dog for years and years! I have this book it is a fav!

My package arrived and my book was in in perfect condition. :) George Rodrigue is a treasure that will be sorely missed but his art will live on and bring joy to many! This book is a wonderful collection of holiday inspired pictures of our favorite Blue Dog and also filled with great stories about Christmas penned by George. It's a must have for Rodrigue fans!

Rodrigue was unique as an artist and as a writer. Even though he is dead the blue dog will live on.

Beautiful book with many great pictures of Blue Dog. This will be a gift and I know that they will love it

This calendar is perfect...cute, colorful and decorative. Great quality, too.
