Used this all over on our trip to Vietnam in April 2017. It's easy to read, gives great recommendations for places to visit, see, stay, eat, etc. We've used the Lonely Planet books to help plan all our international vacations. Can't go wrong. We really loved the little bit about Cambodia as well since we visited there on the trip and didn't have to buy a whole separate book! Hope to be able to use this again to visit Central Vietnam! Get the book, you'll love it too!

A Luddite, I know, but I still love a good guide book to look over options before a trip. This one seems as good as the LP's usually are. I have a friend who just returned from Vietnam, and her experiences with hotels, transportation, etc. matched almost to the letter what the LP says - and she didn't consult any guidebooks before heading out. My only wish is that LP would expand on mid-level places to stay for those of us past our super-budge backpacker days, but not wanting a resort experience.

So far I'm just using the book to plan our trip, and as usual it's a great help. Lonely Planet can be counted on for clear instructions, good maps, and lots of interesting suggestions beyond the obvious highlights. In this the Vietnam guide, I'm noticing that directions for travel between points ("getting there and away") is not as detailed as in other LP guides, and I hope this won't be a drawback when travelling - that is, I hope that it won't be hard to get more specific tips from our guesthouses, etc.

As Advertised - Good Condition

Always carry this with me during my trip! I love it!

Excellente

I just spent 2 weeks in Vietnam. This book was great for planning the trip. The color maps are great for reference during the trip. . For the major cities they do a good job of noting the major sites to visit. Overall this is the best travel guide for Vietnam.

An excellent book that was very detailed with many facts and information for those traveling DIY or with a tour. Highly recommended travel companion. In process of planning our trip now!
