Catalogue Of Plants Cultivated In The Royal Botanical Gardens, Trinidad: From 1865 To 1870 (Classic Reprint)

Synopsis

Excerpt from Catalogue of Plants Cultivated in the Royal Botanical Gardens, Trinidad: From 1865 to 1870 This Catalogue has been compiled for distribution with a view more particularly to facilitate exchange of useful and ornamental plants with other Botanical Establishments; to increase the sale of duplicate plants raised in the Garden, by which sale of plants the Garden is to some extent supported; and, having been incorporated in the Proceedings of the Scientific Association of this Island, to furnish a record of the plants grown in the Garden during the five years previous to the date of publication. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books. Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work. Forgotten Books uses state-of-the-art technology to digitally reconstruct the work, preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy. In rare cases, an imperfection in the original, such as a blemish or missing page, may be replicated in our edition. We do, however, repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully; any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works.
