I Don't Look Like What I've Been Through

Synopsis

***Complete Series Two best friends from different sides of the track are dealing with harsh issues of life. With the lack of love, dealing with rejection, bitterness and abuse Kierra and Brandon feel as though life couldn't get any worse. Kierra is a motherless child who feels as though no one wants her. She regrets the day her mother and father conceived her. Being from a family that didn't have much, she was determined to leave and never come back to the life she once lived. That is until she pops up pregnant from her overly possessive and abusive boyfriend, who doesn't want her but doesn't want anyone else to have her either. He goes through extreme measures to make sure that Kierra doesn't get the attention she deserves from anyone else, even her best friend Brandon. Brandon comes from a family of wealth but everything that glitters is not always gold. Brandon deals with rejection from his father and although Brandon has everything he wants he still feels a void in his life. Brandon is raised in church but feels that all church is about is a fashion show and money. Brandon decides to leave his family and venture off into a world of his own, only to realize that there were some life lessons only his drunk father could teach him. Brandon ends up right back where he started; home.

Customer Reviews

Another great read from Miss Johnson. Keirra had a rough life which led her to fall in love with the wrong guy but Brandon, her best friend, never abandoned her no matter what Dez put her through. Their friendship spanned childhood to adulthood. I love the twist Jenica incorporated in this storyline. I also enjoyed the relationship Keirra built with Phillip and Lauren. Looking forward to next book in this new series.

This book was very interesting to read, had a good story line and the characters were also pretty good. But there were so many misspelled words and errors that I had to read some of the paragraphs two or three times for it to make sense, otherwise like I said a good read.

I am not the type of person to wish anything on a person but Tamika got what she deserved. She didn't do her own daughter right. Brandon and Kierra finally got their happy ending. I just couldn't put the book down, the story leaps off each page. I hope Dennis and Eva can resolve their issues.

This was an absolutely marvelous read. It had me all in my feelings. I laughed, I cried, I got so mad that I actually threw my kindle. This book really took me through some things. I wanted to cut Dez's hands off for all of the abuse. I was so glad when he got his in the shower. Jenica, girl you did the darn thing with this one. I can't wait for part 2.

You will not be able to put this book down. You will love this book you can't wait to tell other about this book. I have told THREE other people about this book and they have gone to an order this book. It is just that GOOD.

This was a page turner but what took away from the story was the grammatical error. There were issues in what tenses to use and words were missing from some sentences which interrupted the flow of the writing. Lastly there seemed to be issues with when to use rather vs whether; too vs to vs two. Some behavioral things didn't match up from some chapters. I wish it was longer to focus more on Kierra's transition to being stronger after she had her baby and more detail into overcoming her hangups on her wedding night. Not a bad storyline.

Kierra was naive & young calling herself in love. Dez had her mind gone thinking he lost her. He did her so wrong for so long. He had her self esteem low to where she felt nobody wanted her. Her mother even was a trader & did not love her. So glad she finally got some stability in her life. Now Brandon needs to get his self together & I hope it be before it is to late. He needs to decide what he wants & needs. I'm hoping Kierra give ally gets the love she deserves. Her father is back & he's making moves for her &/he is there for her. Now on to part 2

3 stars for great title. Too much violence towards a female. The plot (mother & Daughter with the same man) was too much for me. Please what happen to spell check?
