James Patterson has written more bestsellers and created more enduring fictional characters than any other novelist writing today. He lives in Florida with his family. Jeffrey James Keyes is a writer, photographer, and producer who resides in New York City. His writing has been featured in several publications and he holds an MFA from Columbia University's School of the Arts.

These short stories by James Patterson are easy to read with a well thought out plot. Worth reading over one to two days.

Good read and a fast read. I love to read but sometimes life gets in the way and these short books a gift to me.

Fun book, great description of 'Nawlins. Everything was cute and I liked it. Two things that I didn't like were that there was no explanation of how the poison was implemented and the second was the abrupt ending. I think a regular book should be written. I liked Caleb.

Crazy story, but good. The Killer Chief/Top Policeman has a killer that wants to eliminate some people while they are eating. This is recipe for murder and mayhem. The ending was a little abrupt, but like a good meal the end was satisfying. Recommend Definitely fooled me. I thought I had it figured out... AGAIN, but I was wrong. ã â Â^Â•. The characters were full of life and the novel was fast paced. It was more exciting than I expected and the detective character's addiction was quite hilarious.

This book kept me wrapped, intrigued and fully interested in finding out the outcome of the plot. I am constantly amazed at Patterson's use of complicated vocabulary and the way he puts it down on paper. He is truly a gifted and talented author and I'll read everything he writes and enjoy every minute of it. Thanks again James!!!

I really enjoyed this quick read. I thought this book really captured the essence and few of New Orleans. This was my first of Patterson's "book shots" and it won't be my last.

This quick read about a food truck owning detective and some murders in New Orleans was a guilty pleasure. These BookShots are perfect for when you want to read a whole story in one setting but don't have a lot of time. I recommend this story to all food loving readers of Patterson and friends.
