I read the entire series as it came out over at deviant art. I was hooked! I bought this collection of the first three volumes on a whim and I'm definitely not dissapointed as a fan. The artwork is beautifully rendered on high quality pages in a solid but light hard cover book with a very sturdy spine. I was extremely impressed with everything about this book and it will last for years on my bookshelf. The story is a phenomenal romance between two unique yet complimentary personalities and the amount of time put into conveying a true and deeply thought out story just screams from the pages. It's not all about sex. In fact sex is tact on tastefully. The real gem of this story is the relationship and the friends and family who enter the fray. Great read. Been a fan for a bit over a year, will remain one. This is high quality and affordable!

Just like the graphic novels, it does have nudity and strong sexual content but its a great love story anyone can enjoy. Its a must if you like any kind of story about life, finding your true self and love. No release date on book 2 means you either have to wait for the ending or get the graphic novels

A great series that truly allows for characters to explore what an adventure it is to fall in love, all with the complicated emotions and expectations that come with exploring and discovering a bit of bondage and domination in the middle of it all. When expectations bump up against reality and the lines blur between what's a "play" and what's "real," we get to see both Lisa and Ally find out just how important communication is in such a relationship. While the framing device does remove a little bit of the narrative tension, the depth of the characters really carry the story as the book makes you care about two gals trying to find their way together in a crazy, kinky world.

The artwork is gorgeous, and the story positively incredible. Sunstone affords a very practical view of BDSM, unlike some dangerously unrealistic novels and comics available, which could lead people to hurt themselves for lack of information. While this graphic novel does have some explicit sexual content, it centers around the human element of its characters, which are exquisitely well developed, and continue to develop as the story proceeds, causing the reader to emotionally invest in these people who do not really exist. This is the mark of a master story-teller, and I applaud Mr. Sejc for his masterful creation. I will definitely be buying the compilations, until Mr. Sejc discontinues the story, which will be a sad day indeed.

I found this author's work accidentally on Deviantart years ago. He has several accounts there. The site is where he made this fantastic romance story available originally and continues to do so. He has contributed to several comics through Image, Top Cow, and Marvel (the list grows) and continues to create fantastic art and stories for his own works and in collaboration with others. Buy this book because it's gorgeous and very high quality. Buy this book because it is sultry and arousing. Buy this book because it tells a sincere and achingly beautiful love story. Buy this book because it gives Mr. Sejc another reason to continue to make wonderful art. Also, this story is meant to be told in four parts: Sunstone, Mercy, Jasper, and an unnamed arc that Mr. Sejc has yet to unveil. Gird your feels. This is a rabbit hole you would be remiss to not complete delving.

I love Sunstone. It's a fantastic story that gives insight on the trust of BDSM relationships with a dose of true human nature. The kinks, the nerdism, humorous puns makes this a must read. If you're doubting in getting this... Don't. Do yourself a favor and get the hard covers. It's worth it.

My favorite comic series in a wonderful book binding. I love the feel of this book in my hands and the smell of it. I love cracking it open and reading the first three chapters of their story and the bonus materials are great. Well worth it to get the original five books and then this collection as well.

Sunstone is a lovely story with some actual footing in the real BDSM community. It's sexy, consensual, and surprisingly realistic with its bdsm. Ally and Lisa are amazing characters. The artwork is breathtaking. 10/10!!!
