Fun With Hand Shadows (Dover Children's Activity Books)

Synopsis

This charming book shows you how to have fun with a pastime that has delighted children and adults for generations: making shadow pictures on the wall with your hands and fingers. Selected from the pages of two clever 19th-century picture books, 28 hand-shadow illustrations demonstrate how to create marvelous images of a goose, deer (with antlers), birds, a bunny, a dog, an elephant, a tortoise, and a host of other familiar creatures. For extra enjoyment, the illustrations are accompanied by lively, often hilarious verses by Frank Jacobs, whose zany humor and wacky parodies have appeared in numerous publications. With this book and a bit of practice, you'll soon be delighting friends and relatives with an entertaining performance of shadow art.

Customer Reviews

We may love it later, but our daughter is too young to appreciate the intricate animals. And they actually take more work to figure out than we anticipated.

Kindergarten class I volunteer for (full time!) loved this! I'm 69, this is an old school art, most of the diss had never heard of it! THANK YOU!

Fun, Fun, Fun.... Get the little kids laughing and trying to do it themselves.

The pages are made exactly the same as your childhood coloring book. It was exciting to read the added text, limeric, poem alongside each puppet instruction. They were enjoyably silly. :D

Fun! I love the vintage drawings and feel of the book.

Great illustrations and lots of fun for my 5 year old!

Thank you!!! Love the book!

Vintage and fun!
