Customer Reviews

This is an excellent guide book. It is clear and gives pertinent and useful information. I recommend it to new travelers and those making repeat trips

Only book we used on our 14 day trip. Just enough info to visit some smaller towns and plenty of info for the big 3 rome, florence and venice.

I like the layout and the color shots of various important sites.

Not too good. The information is ok. Expected more.

Street map of Rome does not show metro stops."Essential Italy" doe not include anything south of Rome including Naples, Pompeii, Sicily.

I used this book when I went to Italy this year and have now loned it to other travelers. I love this book. It is easy to read and follow, gives you a good overview of the areas, and provides you with great suggestions. If you are looking for an overview of Italy then this is the book for you! I took a tour that allowed for ample free time and this book got me where I needed to go.

Answers many of the questions I had in planning my upcoming trip.

Lots of useful info written by experts.
