Celebrating In Hawaii: Favorite Recipes For Holidays And Special Occasions

Synopsis

Do you sometimes wish for help to decide what to make for holiday or festive gatherings when friends and family are coming over to celebrate? Or what to bring when invited to someone's house? Hawaii loves its parties and has so many special days that it is always a challenge to serve or bring something new or different. Celebrating in Hawaii: Favorite Recipes for Holidays and Special Occasions has the answers with easy-to-prepare dishes for all of our islands' many celebrations and festivities. Muriel Miura, Hawaii's most prolific cookbook author, has spent decades sampling and deciphering Hawaii's many culinary treasures. In Celebrating in Hawaii, she brings together the choicest dishes with which Hawaii's multiethnic population celebrates and serves at gatherings from small ones for just a few people to ones for the entire ohana. Whether you're hosting family and friends or heading out to celebrate a festivity, turn to Auntie Muriel to make that special gathering tasty and memorable. With menus, planning tips, and entertainment ideas, Celebrating in Hawaii, with its 150 recipes covering appetizers, main dishes, sides, and desserts, will quickly become a must in your kitchen library. (And it makes the ideal holiday gift.)
