Baby/Toddler • Katz's sweet-faced babies are front and center in this oversize board book that reinforces body parts and the concepts of inside, under, over, beneath, and behind. On each page, little ones are asked to lift the large flaps to discover what is inside a girl's mittens, under a hat and scarf, and inside her mouth. The last page is a favorite blanket with the whole child hiding beneath. A perfect lapsit choice for getting dressed and undressed.

My toddler daughter loves this book. They love pulling down the flaps. I wouldn't recommend for kids above the age of two, however. My two year old loves it but my six year old gets bored fast.

my toddler prefers where is baby's belly button, which also has slightly larger flaps, but this "lap size" larger version is a fun book.

Excellent book to have and to read to you kids.

My 2 year old LOVES this book. He points to body parts and says their names.

This is one of the few books that my one year old will sit still for. He loves lifting the flaps and looking at the different parts of the body and I love the adorable rhymes and illustrations. You'll want to supervise your little one when they read/play with this book-- the flap are easy to tear!
