Jobs From A To Z

Synopsis

With its fun rhymes and charming illustrations, Jobs from A to Z teaches children one job for each letter of the English alphabet. Parents and educators will love teaching their children the importance of each occupation, and children will delight in the attractive illustrations, including the "narrator"-- a playful and lovable cat!

Allison Mangrum earned her bachelor's degree in English at Hope International University, Fullerton, California. She worked as an editor and writer in Southern California for several years before moving to Arizona to be a stay-at-home mom. In her free time, she is a freelance writer and editor. Her latest book is African American Writers Who Inspired Change (June 2005).

This book is excellent to use for Career Week. It has some of the more commonly thought of jobs, but it also has some unique ones to discuss.
