Hoop Tales: UConn Huskies Women's Basketball (Hoop Tales Series)

Synopsis

A producer of national titles and numerous female basketball icons, the UConn Huskies women's basketball teams have thrilled regional and national audiences alike. With their spirited play over the years and their equally spirited current coach, Geno Auriemma, these women have transformed the game into a major event. Stories include a feature on Kerry Bascom, the "kid from the crossroads;" a piece on the diehard fans who follow the team all around the country; a poignant profile on the ups and downs in the career of star Shea Ralph; and an insightful look at UConn's biggest star of all time, Diana Taurasi.

Relive Classic Moments in Huskies History! Thrilling victories, crushing defeats, comical mishaps, and colorful coaches, players, and fans-these are the legendary moments and larger-than-life personalities that have made the UConn Huskies a college hoops favorite. In Hoop Tales: UConn Huskies Women's Basketball, veteran journalist Terese Karmel shares her favorite memories of this beloved team. Together you'll relive the highs and lows and become reacquainted with some of the team's all-time greatest heroes and legends including: "Kerry Bascom, the "Kid from the Crossroads" who was UConn's first All-American in women's basketball" Rebecca Lobo, Jennifer Rizzotti, Shea Ralph, Nykesha Sales, Sue Bird, and all the other great stars from the banner years" Geno Auriemma, the charismatic coach who built the UConn women's program into a national powerhouse" Diana Taurasi-the greatest women's basketball player of all time

Terese Karmel writes for several newspapers and magazines, specializing in features and sports. She's currently the UConn women's basketball beat writer for the Meriden Record-Journal. In addition, she's a regular contributor of sports personality features to Connecticut Magazine and the features editor for the Willimantic Chronicle in Willimantic, Connecticut. In all, she has covered the UConn women's team for more than 20 years.

OK. Pretty light-weight. I think there were some factual errors.
