Customer Reviews

Jan Lindenberger is an avid collector and has been involved with antiques of all kinds since 1972. She has published over forty books on collectibles.

Received today. Thank you. Everything was perfect. This book I got for my daughter. She loves the fifties.

The book was good, but I couldn't find what I was specifically looking for.

Good

This book was really fun reading and makes a nice coffee table accessory. I would recommend it if you like vintage kitchen gadgets.

I simply don't see the point of creating a book such as this one. I've purchased many research/reference books, and have a particular love for all things 50s/60s, but the selection of items shown, and the almost total lack of editorial and research information, left me extremely disappointed. I don't know what the criteria was for choosing the items to feature, but I don't find them to be representative of the era, or even the best or most classic examples. The 50s and 60s were FUN! This author didn't bring any of that fun to her book.
