Who Was Amelia Earhart? (Who Was?)

Synopsis

Amelia Earhart was a woman of many "firsts." In 1932, she became the first woman to fly solo across the Atlantic Ocean. In 1935, she also became the first woman to fly across the Pacific. From her early years to her mysterious 1937 disappearance while attempting a flight around the world, readers will find Amelia Earhart's life a fascinating story.

Customer Reviews

My students are in a 5th and 6th grade gifted class and all really enjoy the entire series of "Who Was?" "Who Is?" and "What Was?" books for their AR (Accelerated Reader) goals. These series are all classified as nonfiction, with book level from 4.5-6.0 and they are worth 1 point.

These are great books. All of the Who Was books are excellent for young readers. My daughter gets very excited when she can teach us a little something about history and she seems to truly find things interesting. I think this is a great read for grades 3 and 4 great books for my kids to read on their own!

Good little book for grade school children

What an inspiring, brave, woman! I am so glad that my granddaughter knows her story!

I am happy with my purchase

My nine year old daughter became excited about Amelia Earhart because of this book. It's very engaging.

Great reading for kids
