Synopsis

Gabriella Midwinter used to have a home. She wasn't invisible back then. For fans of Cathy Cassidy and Jacqueline Wilson, a stunning new novel from the author of SHINE, GLITTER, SEA OF STARS and A MILLION ANGELS. What's strange is that the day it actually happened, everything seemed so normal. Caught between arguing parents and moving house, twelve-year-old Gabriella somehow slips through the cracks. Now she's more alone than ever before. The city streets are no place for young girls but they're all she's got. Unless she can find her brother Beckett. Unless she can find her home.

Kate Maryon is a homeopath and complimentary therapist who has worked with many young people. She lives in Somerset with her partner and her large Newfoundland dog, Ellie. Kate loves chocolate, British films, eating out, reading, writing and lying on sunny beaches. She dislikes snakes, spiders, peppermint and honey.

A great book and an excellent reminder of the internal struggles associated with poverty and homelessness.

I loved this book. It was a beautiful story about a girl who finds her way to love. I'm upset that the book is over. The characters in this book will stay with you forever!
