My 12-month-old loves these little books! He loves that the dog's head moves while I'm reading it to him, since it's a finger puppet. He also enjoys holding and chewing on the book once we're done reading it. My only complaint is that they're a bit too short, would like more words on a page so it takes longer to read.

Bought this as a gift for my nephew. Right now he is still REALLY young, so he just likes grabbing my finger as its in the "puppet", but he also likes this "sing-songy" verse type book more than traditional story books at this young of an age. (Too young to understand plots.)

Its a nice book, but my daughter had no interest in it. The piggy one was more attractive for her.

I gave this to a group of fathers who are working on reading to their children. All the adults loved it and so did the kids.

Loved by young and old -- perfect shower gifts.

Patterned after The Itsy Bitsy Spider finger puppet book (our grandbaby's favorite), this one does not disappoint. It is sturdy and chewable, with vivid and appealing illustration, and follows the song/story line. It is well-made and has just enough movement activity to stimulate a baby and hold its attention.

A fun board book for babies.

My 17 month old received her first little learners puppet book for her first birthday and she absolutely loves them. I could not find anymore until I found them here on . And can't complain about the price.
