Synopsis

A California girl, LaDonna got hooked on Alaska, fishing and husband Ole (not necessarily in that order!) more than twenty years ago and has never looked back. As chief deck hand and galley cook on the LaDonna Rose, their 32-foot commercial fishing vessel based in Ketchikan Alaska, she's responsible for all their meals. These are often prepared on the fly, on a rocking and rolling boat, in a tiny 4x7 foot galley (kitchen) using a tiny oil stove and oven. Yet she refuses to stock the galley with "heat and eat" prepared foods and instead has become adept at serving up scrumptious, inventive, quick and easy to prepare dishes such as: "Bacon Wrapped Halibut," "Buffalo Chicken," "Seared Scallops with Teriyaki Salad" and even "Pumpkin Doughnuts." There's recipes for every meal of the day including: "Apple Puffed Pancake," "Grilled Salmon Caesar Salad with Parmesan Croutons," "Artichoke, Tomato and Spinach Pizza," "Crab Croquettes," "Garlic Shrimp Crostini," "Coffee Spiced-Rubbed Spareribs" and "Ole's Butter and Brown Sugar Squares." Discover a new spin on much-loved classics such as King salmon as kebabs, meatloaf baked in muffin tins and a top secret key lime mouse with a clever twist. With My Tiny Alaskan Oven, you will take much pleasure in preparing the food, as in eating it and, it will earn its place in the kitchens of everyone who craves an easier solution to preparing homemade meals for their family. The book is accompanied with lively stories and gorgeous full-color photographs taken by Ole of the dishes, Alaskan scenery and the commercial fishing lifestyle. No matter how big or tiny your oven... join Ole and LaDonna, as they share their passion for food, fishing, photos and fun!

Thank you

LaDonna Gundersen is an accomplished Alaska fisherman and best selling author of the cookbooks, Alaskan Rock'n Galley and Salmon, Desserts & Friends. She has appeared on several local and national radio and television programs including: "Hookin' Up" with Mariko Izumi, Martha Stewart, the Jay Thomas show, KCPQ channel 13 in Seattle, Ketchikan a Fish Story, Ketchikan Alaska's own Celebrity Chef and many more. She has been featured and written about in magazines such as, Northwest Yachting, Sea Magazine and Where Woman Cook. Her inventive recipes have been shared with a host of online media including: The Daily Meal, Stylist Magazine and Three Sheets Northwest. LaDonna is an example of turning challenge into opportunity, of dealing with change and uncertainty in a way that inspires people to savor each and every day. She lives in Ketchikan, Alaska with her husband Ole and their cat Keta. Ole Gundersen grew up in Ketchikan, Alaska and could row a boat long before he learned to ride a bicycle. The love of the water and outdoor life led him to the world of commercial fishing where he's been for over thirty years. From the Rugged coast of Oregon to the pristine waters of southeast Alaska, Ole considers himself incredibly fortunate to make his living amongst some of the most beautiful scenery in North America. His hope is to bring back the beauty of what he sees with his camera.

The author of this great cookbook lives in my hometown of Ketchikan, Alaska. She and her husband commercially fish. She is an excellent cook. I have never had a bad recipe yet from her cookbook. I highly recommend this cookbook not only for the delicious recipes, but because they are healthy recipes as well. The cookbook is worth it just for the beautiful photos.

If I could give this cookbook 10 stars I would! I bought it in Ketchikan in July, and have cooked my way through so many of recipes already. 3 friends have bought the book after seeing mine. I too lived with a Tiny Alaska Oven for many years, the book is so fun. Susan Great book and a lot of recipes that I will be trying on our boat.

Great cookbook ! Gave it to a friend who is fishing and cooking in Alaska ... kinda perfect.

arrived safely and fast shipping!

Great recipes and wonderful stories.

I give it 4 stars just for the pictures and dialogue...I have not tried a recipe yet!

Ladonna and Ole Gundersen make their living and life on the rough waters off the Alaska Coast. I've been to Alaska many times. My husband and son love to fish for Salmon and Halibut, thus it's left to me to figure out how to prepare their catch in such a way as to not ruin it! Both salmon and halibut are delicate foods, and need to be handled with care, and love. This beautiful cookbook, filled with Ole's photographs of Ladonna's mouthwatering dishes, has helped me tremendously. In "My Tiny Alaskan Oven" you get more than recipes for Salmon and Halibut. You get the whole gamut! Salmon, Halibut, Shrimp, Crab, Clams, Beef, Chicken, and more - used in Appetizers, Main Dishes, Side Dishes, Snacks, Desserts you name it - and all done in a simple, adventurous Alaskan style. I also recommend LaDonna's book "Salmon, Desserts, & Friends" which is geared specifically towards Salmon recipes, with main course, side dish, and desserts.
