This book is a good high-level snapshot of what Norway has to offer. However, once I was wandering the streets of Oslo, I wished that I had a book with greater selection and one that offered a few more off-beat places to visit. By following this book's direction, I felt like I was traveling down the same road as thousands of other tourists. In addition, the book's maps lacked sufficient detail. I think there are better Norway books to be had.
