Amanda Formaro is the crafty, entrepreneurial mother of four. She has been working online and from home since 1997. A former webmaster turned blogger, she is a crafting expert for companies such as Disney and General Mills, and has appeared online and in print publications many times over the years. Her passion for crafting resonates from her blog, Crafts by Amanda, where she shares tutorials with step-by-step photos for adults and kids alike. She lives in the beautiful midwest state of Wisconsin with her husband, children and myriad of pets. She loves to create, write, cook and bake and has a knack for turning a cardboard tube into just about anything! I was disappointed that so many of the projects do not use buttons. With the title being, "BUTTON MANIA," I really expected a lot of Button projects.

Amanda has a real gift for creating things from every day items, and this book is no exception. I had the privilege of meeting her as she has her studio in my home town. Her books are full of inspiration...this being my favorite so far. Buttons, buttons, who's got the buttons?

Great ideas!!!!!!

This book has many fun projects for everyone.
