Customer Reviews

One of the classiest series of guide books around... The Sunday Times

The guide was very helpful when visiting Gyor. The map got me out of the train station and followed signs to tourist office that had changed locations. Not reliable about the 24 hour Budapest card. It pretty much does not exist. They push you to buy the more expensive 48 hour card. There are no free museums as stated in the book, only a very small discount. It would be better to buy just a travel pass for both days, and purchase hop on, hop off directly from the company. I love carrying my guide books by Kindle. It is easy to access and less weight than a book.

This guide is designed for travelers using public transportation and we had a car so we found much information irrelevant. We also found it difficult to use due to its organization.
